Jenkins To Stop In Jefferson County

United States Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins returns to the local area this week, bringing her “Congress to Kansas” Listening Tour to Jefferson County.

On Friday, the Kansas Republican will meet with constituents, in Valley Falls, at the Delaware Township Library, beginning at 9:30 in the morning.

The stop will be the 53rd tour stop that Jenkins, who oversees the 2nd district, has made since beginning her second term in Congress at the beginning of last year.

The public is invited to attend the session, with Jenkins to provide updates on the happenings in Washington D.C. While answering questions provided by those who attend.
