

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=78930>

HTRS Students earn honors in statewide art contest
(KLZA)-- Four students from the Humboldt - Table Rock - Steinauer School District earned honorable mention in the Nebraska Department of Transportation 2025 Aviation Youth Art Contest.

Young artists from across Nebraska participated with their work depicting how women—from pioneering pilots to engineers and skydivers broke barriers and inspired future generations.

Earning Honorable Mention in the contest were:

15 year-old Rayna Reyes, 15-year-old Cole Hunzeker, 14-year-old Dawniquia Goodlander and 14-year-old Eden Duryea all students taught by Sharon Joyner.

Entries from across the state for the 2025 Aviation Youth Art Contest were judged. This year- theme, "Women with Wings," celebrated the achievements, creativity and determination of women who shaped aviation history.

Many Signals Communications