

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=79299>

Former Atchison teacher promoted to principal position

(KAIR)--A former longtime Atchison educator has moved into a new role, named as the next principal of Larned High School, in Larned, Kansas.

According to a release from Fort Larned USD 495, the Board of Education approved the promotion of Roni Ettleman for the role, effective July 1.

Currently serving as Assistant Principal and Athletic Director at Larned High, Ettleman served 15 years teaching Business at the Atchison Public Schools of USD 409.

He earned his undergraduate degree in Business Administration and Economics from Fort Lewis College, followed by a Master- in Education from the University of Phoenix and a Master- in School Leadership from Benedictine College.

Ettleman and his wife, Amy, moved to Larned in 2019.

Many Signals Communications