Juvenile Mischief to Blame for Atchison House Fire

Juvenile mischief in a house basement is to blame for a house fire in Atchison.

Crews responded to a home at 1205 Atchison Street Saturday afternoon just before two, blocking off access in that area.

Atchison Fire Chief Mike McDermed says they were able to quickly contain the fire.

However, the reasoning behind why the beanbag was on fire wasn't available immediately.

McDermed says no charges are expected to be filed and says it's up to the parents for any further disciplinary matters.
