Falls City School Board to Meet Monday

The Falls City Board of Education will hold its February meeting at 7:00 p.m. Monday.

Action items for the board includes consideration of a resolution to authorize redemption of limited tax bonds issued in 2008, and a resolution authorizing the issuance of limited tax refunding bonds.

Other action items include consideration of approving the 2012-13 school calendar, and recognizing the FCEA as the collective bargaining unit for the district's teachers.

The report from Superintendent Tim Heckenlively includes information on Kindergarten admissions, faculty and staff appreciation, and the Falls City Foundation meeting.

The board meets in the Central Office at Falls City Middle School.
