Since it is his third DUI arrest, it is a felony charge, as well as the child endangerment count.

Other misdemeanor arrest counts include, interlock device violation, transporting an open container, no proof on insurance, and no driver's license on person.

He was able to post a 10 thousand dollar bond late last night.

According to Atchison County Attorney Gerald Kuckleman, formal charges filed in addition to those counts, include a felony possession of narcotics charge for Walsh allegedly having hydrocodone on him during a search.

He makes his next appearance in court on March 7th.
