Random Drawing for College World Series Tickets

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) _ A random selection process will be used to sell about 10,000 reserved tickets to the College World Series.

The NCAA announced Thursday that about 750 tickets will be available for each game through a lottery system.

The system requires fans to enter the drawing at www.ncaa.com/cws beginning at 12 a.m. EST on Friday. Those selected can purchase up to four tickets a game at face value for as many as four CWS games. The deadline is March 19.

A computerized drawing will be held March 31, and applicants will be notified by email if they are selected.

The CWS is June 15-25/26 at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha, Neb.
