

Richardson County Recall Effort Continues

An effort to recall Richardson County Assessor Regina Cummings is nearing the end. Petitioners have until March 7th to turn in their signatures to get a possible recall vote on the May 15th Primary ballot.

Fred Brewer and Terry Lotter have led the recall effort. Brewer says petitioners are continuing to gather signatures. (play audio :10 seconds)

Brewer said one thing that he is hearing from people is a fear of repercussion if they sign the recall petition. (play audio :36 seconds)

Under state statutes the value of all taxable real property parcels are taxed uniformly and proportionately.

Brewer also explains why petitioners have decided to stop collecting signatures March 7th. (play audio 28 seconds)

Brewer said that if anyone has questions or wants more information on the recall effort to call him, or Terry Lotter.
