The 2012 Kansas State High School Basketball Brackets Have Been Released
With Sub-State Championships won, nine local high school basketball teams will head to their respective state tournament this week to continue post season play.

In Class 1A-Division II, the Frankfort Wildcats boys will begin the state tournament as a 3 seed at Fort Hays State University after taking down the B&B Falcons in overtime to win the sub-state title. The Wildcats first round game will be this Wednesday, 3/7 at 4:45 PM. Their opponent will be the Lancer's of Crest High School from Colony.

The Wetmore Cardinal girls will join the Frankfort boys in Hays after defeating the B&B Falcons on Saturday night in the 1A-DII sub-state championship game played in Frankfort. Wetmore, the 2 seed, will play the Trojans of Logan high school at 3 PM on Thursday, 3/8.
