Since Dobbs allegedly committed five traffic violations during the pursuit, the fleeing and eluding charge becomes a felony.

He was also booked on misdemeanor counts of possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

A passenger, 27 year old Nichole Jones of Saint Charles, Missouri was also booked on marijuana possession and paraphernalia charges.

They were also booked on misdemeanor possession of stolen property when officers allegedly discovered a Playstation 3 in the vehicle believed to be part of items taken in a December 28th burglary in the 600 block of North 3rd in Atchison.

A third occupant in the vehicle took off and has not been apprehended.

Jones was able to post bond Wednesday and Dobbs remains in jail on 25 thousand dollars bond.
