Falls City School Board to Meet Monday

The Falls City Board of Education will meet Monday evening, beginning at seven o'clock, in the District's Central Office.

Action items for the board include adopting the District goals for 2012. The board will also consider setting the non-resident tuition rate for the next school year; will consider the appointment of a Legislative Committee member; and the resignation of the Flag Corps Director.

The board will also meet in closed session to discuss the Superintendent and Principal contracts.

Elementary Media Specialist Gail Froeschl will give a staff report, and reports will also be given by the district principals and Superintendent Tim Heckenlively.
