Valley Falls Man Arrested for Criminal Threat

A Valley Falls man is in custody in Jefferson County jail on multiple charges.

According to Valley Falls police chief Josh Pence, officers were called to the 300 block of Maple Tuesday evening around six for a disturbance between two males.

As a result of the incident, Christopher Daniel was taken into custody on the felony charge of criminal threat and misdemeanor charges of disorderly conduct and battery of a law enforcement officer.

According to the jail, a five thousand dollar bond on a previous case was revoked Wednesday in Jefferson County Court
